

How to Greet a Dog (and What to Avoid)

Appropriate greetings are common sense. Imagine if someone greeted you the way many people greet dogs!

Human to Human INCORRECT

Avoid reaching into their safety zone.

Avoid rushing up.

Avoid interactions without asking.

Avoid staring at people. This is scary.

Avoid looming over.

Avoid reaching into personal space.

Avoid close interaction if the person is afraid of you.

Avoid touching inappropriately.

Human to Dog INCORRECT

Avoid reaching in or towards the dog's car.

Avoid rushing up.

Avoid interacting with unfamiliar dogs, especially if they're tied up.

Avoid staring at the dog or approaching head-on.

Avoid leaning over or towards dogs even when you change position to squat or get up.

Avoid reaching your hand out for the dog to sniff.

Avoid petting if the dog looks nervous or tense. Just admire him instead.

Avoid hugging, kissing, and patting roughly. This is too familiar and disliked by many dogs.

Human to Dog CORRECT

Stand a safe distance away so that you are not a threat.

Approach slowly (at a relaxed walk).

Ask if you can interact first.

Approach sideways and look using your peripheral vision.

Stay outside the dog's bubble and present your side to the dog.

Let the dog approach at his own rate.

It's OK to pet the dog if he looks relaxed, comes up to you, and solicits your attention by rubbing against you.

Pet gently.
